[4] 次の英文を読んで、後の質問に答えなさい

During this summer vacation, I went to Kyoto for four days on a holiday. It has been four years (A) I last visited the city, when I was still a high school student.

In the city, I visited the Kinkaku temple. It was built by Ashikaga Yoshimitsu a long time ago. (B) It is a temple covered in gold. It is one of the most famous temples in Japan, and many foreigners come to see it. It was also filled with many students on their school trips.

In the evening, I went to the Kiyomizu temple, another famous sight in Kyoto. It is a temple which is built on a small mountain, and its main hall is sometimes called the “stage” in Japanese. From this “stage,” you can enjoy a spectacular view of the entire city of Kyoto. You should visit the temple especially at night, when it is lit up by the illumination.

I also enjoyed eating some of the local foods while I was in the city. Kyoto is surprisingly famous for ramen, or Chinese style noodles. There are many restaurants (C) which serve them, and I had a chance to try different flavors while I was in Kyoto.

My trip to Kyoto was very good, and I wish to visit the city again soon.
